

I am appalled that the what was once a diverse media landscape in the US has now become a 4-horse circus. Please keep the media diverse, competitive, balanced and fair. The recent invasion in Iraq and the lack of any credible reporting is all the more reason to stop the American media from becoming merely a propaganda tool of the government....no Soviet-style media please!